

The SIRS 750 Report

NYSED released a new report during the 2021- 2022 school year for allow schools to review a student's academy history in NY State. This report will be super help when students transfer in from another school or if the school wished to research someone's the academic career in greater detail.

NOTE- data from prior school years is for informational purposes only and cannot be updated.

Access the history of a current student in L2RPT using the IBM Cognos Analytics \(nycenet.edu\)

- 10- OODP

#2: There are two BEDS code fields for each enrollment: students in a typical School District would have a District BEDS code and a unique BEDS Code to identify the exact school building they attend. Charter school enrollments will have the same DISTRICT and BEDS Code listed across these column twice.

#10: OODP stands for an Out of District Placement. ALL enrollments for CSE students at a charter or private school will have a second simultaneous enrollment for the NYC DOE to enable to City to report CSE supports and to ensure proper funding. BOCES students will also have simultaneous reenrollments at BOCES and home district.

CTE report will list all CTE programs the student participated in at a NY school.

SIRS Manual: SIRS \(nysed.gov\)

Career and Technical Education (CTE) Students

CTE Programs: Located in high schools and BOCES, Career and Technical Education programming provides academic and technical instruction in the content areas of agriculture, business and marketing, family and consumer sciences, health sciences, trade and technical education, and/or technology education. CTE programs are comprised of at least three CTE courses (equivalent to three full units of study) and incorporate the Career Development and Occupational Studies (CDOS) Learning Standards. A list of CTE program service codes is found in Chapter 5: Codes and Descriptions. CTE programs that are sequences used to fulfill diploma requirements also include the content of the one-half unit state-developed Career and Financial Management curricular framework. Programs used to fulfil diploma requirements must first be approved by the Office of Career and Technical Education. See the Program Approval Process and Approved CTE Programs for additional information.
